To Whom It May Concern;

There are several motivators regarding my interest in the serving on the White City Council.

I am a lifelong resident of Utah and have been a resident of White City now for almost 10 years. I initially acquired the property in which I'm living roughly 15 years ago. At the time I had been living in Park City on a gentleman's ranch for almost 20 years. Prior to that I lived in various southeast areas of the valley, growing up in Rose Park.

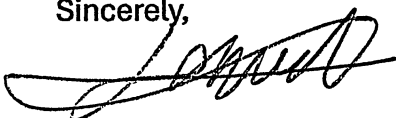

I purchased my current residence as a fallback; in case I found myself living back in the valley and wanted to make sure I had a place to house my animals, should that happen. My intent was never to live here and looked at it as purely temporary.

But after selling in Park City and moving in for what I thought would be a "lay over", and as I spent more time in the area I became by impressed with it's uniqueness. It's a quiet somewhat slow-moving residential community, but at the same has ready access to any required commercial or retail necessities and essentials. And running right through it Dimple Dell Park, perhaps the most desirable attraction to a person of my sensibilities. I feel that the Park and the City are intertwined in their common distinctions.

Throughout my career I have had the opportunity to own, manage and work with start-ups, research and development, and new product development. As a result, I have been exposed to the realities of budgeting and the demands of requirement versus need. It has also put me in the position of dealing with employee disagreements, and human resource issues and problem solving of every sort imaginable. I've been heavily involved in addressing government regulations; dealing with the FDA, Department of Agriculture, the Securities and Exchange Commission as well as the Federal Aviation Administration.

It appears that White City is going to be my forever home, and if I can contribute to its' ongoing success, and at the same time help it retain the uniqueness that I find so attractive, I would be happy to attempt to apply my talents to that effort.

Sincerely,

William R. Stoddard

Mr. Stoddard, 73, has an extensive background in both private debt and equity finance and financing within the private and public markets. He is currently or has been, both a Management Principal and Financial Principal in a wide range of companies and activities ranging from banking, to medical product & services development, computer graphic animated film making, newspaper media and the development of alternative jet fuels. He has worked in the field of Homeland Security technologies development and commercialization, funded in part by the United States Government.

During 1991 thru 2002 he served as CFO then CEO and Chairman of a NASDAQ traded environmental technologies company. During his tenure there he successfully forged strategic, project, technology and financial, partnerships with diverse companies such as Proctor & Gamble, Pharmacia, Kohler Co, ConAgra and Alliance Corporation. He oversaw all areas of interface with the SEC including all the required filings. As a national spokesman for this cutting-edge environmental technology, he lectured extensively for the Electrical Power Resource Institute, and appeared on programs on both the National Public Broadcasting Network and National Public Radio.

From 1987 to 1991 among other business activities, He served as CFO and COO of Medivest, Inc., a Fixed Wing Air Ambulance company manufacturing the only FAA approved fixed wing air ambulance in the world. These flying AICU units were sold extensively not only in the United States but also abroad for the purpose of providing air ambulance services to Norway, Sweden, Switzerland, and Denmark. This company also developed and marketed the first successful Tele-Radiology Technology which became the standard for digital transfer of medical images over fiber-optic lines. He has also been a financial principal and CFO of a Chartered Industrial Bank and has consulted with major leasing and financial institutions such as Equitable Life Insurance Co., United California Bank (now Wells Fargo) and Greyhound Financial Corporation.

Prior to this time, Mr. Stoddard spent several years consulting with various companies in connection with management of equipment and vehicle leasing portfolios, merger and acquisition activities, major capital asset acquisition, the development of captive finance programs, and joint venture structuring.
